

Daniel Park, ASSOCIATE

Daniel Park is an associate with the Firm's litigation group. Daniel is an experienced litigator who focuses on complex commercial litigation, representing the Firm's institutional clients in the state and federal courts located in New York and New Jersey.

Prior to joining the Firm, Daniel was an associate with a litigation boutique representing nationally recognized financial institutions and servicers on a broad range of real estate, bankruptcy, and title-related matters. Daniel is a graduate of Columbia University – School of Engineering and Applied Sciences (B.S., 2005) and Rutgers School of Law – Newark (J.D., 2013). Prior to attending Rutgers, Mr. Park was one of several entrepreneurs to start a business on 9th Avenue in Clinton/Hell's Kitchen. While at Rutgers, Mr. Park was the Managing Notes & Comments Editor for the Rutgers Computer and Technology Law Journal and was an intern for the United States Army, Judge Advocate General's Corps.

